THE MANY REASONS THAT SUPPORTING THE CALIFORNIA COUNCIL ON PROBLEM GAMBLING HELPS IN CALIFORNIA

Founded in 1986, CalPG is dedicated exclusively to helping problem gamblers and their loved ones.

Over 1 million adults in California will suffer from a gambling problem in their lifetimes.

~ 2006 California Problem Gambling Prevalence Survey

CalPG provides education and outreach to raise awareness of problem gambling.

Substance abuse is 3.6 times more common than gambling disorder, but $281 is spent on help services for each $1 spent on gambling.

~ 2013 National Problem Gambling Services Survey

Help is available, and recovery is possible - but awareness must come first!

The California Council on Problem Gambling (CalPG) is a non-profit organization, founded in 1986. We work to reduce gambling-related harm by connecting people to help, providing education and training, strengthening prevention and treatment access, and advocating for people harmed by gambling, including affected others, families, and communities.
